The file you sent is fairly accurate still, although there are some edits that could be made (relative to times/dates). We have not been allowed to release any models for stakeholder/public review, notwithstanding our indicated desire to do so last summer. Not sure the change is critical, but we could possibly update efforts on Lake Tenkiller model.

Hi Richard – We are getting a high level request for a status/update on the effort. I have this attached paper from May. Any updates? Thanks!
